

P. S. This is Little Melis ^{Acc. 12.11} hearty paper Monday - 1901 to write on. (tell Ruth) also the wedding march sounds fine on our lovely piano Well Family here.

I thought we had come here to get away from the heat, but my goodness it is scorching here - and the mosquitoes are something dreadful last night Eva & I did not begin to go asleep till 4 o'clock. We are so sleepy today that we can hardly move -
Yesterday Eva & Will

2.
were determined that they would not go to church, Eva had no clothes & Poor Bills kidneys began to worry him. however we arrived at the Methodist church about 11.15. They have a new minister
he was quite nice.
He gave us a sermon on the coast of Labrador & lambs - Last night on evening Will had one of his visions he swore he saw somebody

3. with white ducks on, come into our house, we were all down at the beach at the time - but we came up & armed ourselves ^{with} golf clubs, hoes etc & searched the house, but the ghost had fled! - & later in the evening Coyle came to pay us his usual yearly visit, & we concluded that he was the guilty one with the white ducks - Yesterday Eva & I sat on the beach with two young men & had a fine time - Jean Kennedy & Mrs Ames have taken possession of G. M.'s woods, but they are very careful so it is all right - It is so roasting that we are going in bathing this morning - If Ruth wants to stay in town longer it is all right for we are
