Dear Mr^s Harrington

It was with deep regret and a keen sense of personal loss that I heard this morning of Dr. Harrington's death.

During the past nine years I have come into more intimate relationship with him than most of his colleagues and consequently have had fuller opportunities of appreciating and enjoying the kindness with which his nature overflowed. Especially did I appreciate his full sympathy during the past three years when I was myself bearing the sorrows of family affliction.

I have missed our daily intercourse very much in the past year and shall feel the want of his guidance while endeavouring to carry on his work in the laboratories which the university owes mainly to him.

My wife and I would like to express our sincere sympathy with you and your family in your bereavement.

Yours very sincerely
J. Wallace Walker.

Mr Walker

I have received your kind letter and am glad to hear that you are well and that you are still in the land of the living.
I am glad to hear that you are still in the
land of the living.
I am glad to hear that you are still in the land of the living.

My wife and I would like to express our sincere sympathy with you and
your family in your bereavement.

Yours very sincerely
J. Walker
