

58 W. Hill College Ave.

Tues. Dec. 3. 1907.

My dear Mrs. Harrington,

I rejoice with you in the high, worthy life-record your loved husband has left on earth, and that our Father has forever released him from pain and suffering.

I shall not go see you in this your time of bereavement. You will not lack for visits.

from sympathetic friends.
It will please me to have you come here, the first day you can, that we may together praise our GOD for much we have
for which to praise Him,
and also pray for the
loved ones still on earth.
I feel sure you know
I am

Lovingly your friend
in our Lord Christ,
Agnes L. Thomson.
