

214 Milton Street

December 8th 1904

Dear Mr. Harrington

I hope you will allow me to offer you my deep and heartfelt sympathy in your irreparable loss.

It is impossible that I should not feel it deeply, for it is more than twenty years since Neil first began to spent part of his daily life with Dr. Harrington and to speak of him with constantly ~~with~~ increasing admiration, respect and affection

In one of his obituaries he was spoken of as distin-guished through life for his high principle and kindness, and in such a light has he been constantly regarded in our home, and I regard it as a personal loss that any

You should no longer have his example before you.

For the loss in your own home, dear Mr. Harrington, no words can give expression or point to comfort, except as we know that no such trial comes but except as the will of our Heavenly Father, and He alone can give us strength to bear it.

That He may thus strengthen, and by degrees comfort you,

Mrs Evans
Ans-

and sustain you in all your cares and responsibilities, is the prayer of yours with the deepest sym-pathy
Mrs Evans.
