Dear Dr Douglas,

Mr Evans
came to see me yesterday to tell me that you & Sir William had arranged to purchase my husband's Collection of Minerals, & to present it to the Coll.

My husband had always hoped that the College would have it & I knew that it wd have been painful to him to think of it being scattered yet he told me to dispose of it, & thought I sh^d do so -

now it will be just where he wished it, & we will also benefit by the liberal price given for it.

I am profoundly grateful for your most thoughtful kindness & it is good to owe so much to the friends who valued him.

I often wonder if the wealthy ^{man} knows the very heart & care of the meaning of friendship. The goodness of God & man.

With our united thanks

Very sincerely yours
Anna L. Warrington
