My dear Miss Lunn,

I am rather reluctant to make a selection among the first four, who are very nearly equal in merit.
But if a selection is to be made, I should award the first place to No 29 - Miss Dewson.

Very truly yours

Goldwin Smith.

Education.

THE MISSES (NEIL) McINTOSH'S
CLASSES;

Burnside House, McGill College Avenue.

As the MISSES McINTOSH devote their whole time and attention to the Tuition of their Boarders, and are assisted by an efficient staff of Teachers for the different Branches, they have every confidence in stating, that the course of Instruction imparted at their Institution is thorough and systematic, and such as cannot fail to render the young ladies placed under their charge highly accomplished.

While no branch of a fashionable education is neglected, the Principals, further considering the formation of a truly Christian character of a paramount importance, pay strict attention to the religious culture of their pupils, at the same time avoiding the inculcation of sectarian views.

Burnside House is situated in one of the healthiest and most pleasant parts of Montreal: its rooms are large and airy; and all the regulations of the Establishment have been framed so as to secure for the Boarders a cheerful and happy home, in addition to the advantages stated above.

Payment is made quarterly in advance, and no Boarders are received for a shorter period than one year.
