dearest - I don't expect to don't you believe a word of Dr H. & his "obscure diseases in the joints", though if it were the result of over-exertion to meet with it, it might be preferable to the more slight past friendship of the old part-sional "rheumatism" - as to the oil - it will be quite sufficient - for the butter is so good here that I eat quantities, & we have literally had more cream than we care to eat - from this $15.00 crew - Damperness I do avoid finding it has a bad effect & about eating I sh<sup>d</sup> think the learned physician was "sarcaizing" me, if he had seen more of my "tricks & manners" surely you can have no great anxiety about my appetite - I am re glad that you can ride clear, & shall imagine you carreering over hill & dale & exercising neuralgia & bilious ness - I am sure that such exercise will make a new man of you, I trust you will take it continually & faithfully as a duty, as well as pleasure.

The letter from my poor Lina is a very sad one, so full of weariness, & troubles. I feel very anxious about her coming trouble I will write to Mrs B about it.

Will you please enclose me a little powdered borax, I have quite a sore nipple. I fancy that will be the best thing for it - I begin to seriously think of weaning baby, she is so restless as night, she will not sleep except in bed with me & that is giving her such a bad habit, but after about 3 or 4 - I generally give in & take her with me when I have peace, she cannot bear her new sleeping place, I have begun feeding her twice a day - & she takes kindly to it.
We have had bitter cold & wet weather.

Edith has just come with a long face to announce "my doll is not killed" what horrible day she has just escaped I do not know

Thursday

Weather is again beautiful & Eric & I had a dip in the sea wh. was very cold but he seems greatly to enjoy it. We have found quite a new flower here, one of wh. I will send if dry enough - It is pink when fresh has a peculiar flavorous over calyx, stem & leaves a sweet odour - & leaves not unlike elongated ones, but some one there calls them wild verbenas, & the flower is not unlike that.

It grew in the woods by the beach - We have been today for a ~~drive~~ with Mrs Carpenter Eric has been very good but we don't get on very fast with the reading - he calls the rustic steps - I those clumsy steps "Hold me that nearly all the "rustic" was of the great grandpa made meaning the work We have not yet been in the woods - wh- I am longing to see before their beauty is past - Mrs Selwyn is coming down I hear.

Everything is dear this year & they are trying to charge $1.00 per each horse - ride - but I believe an indignation meeting is to be called on that score! the fact is some of the horses last year were ridden by our dear Meluel Selwyn & Emma Skelton are said to have finished the trip then down to Riviere Blanche & back without rest - & one of them (the horses) fell under Miss Skelton - But they have raised the price of every thing & actually ask more for better than we paid in their honor now that Mrs Meyer has come down, she will lecture the community & put things straight -

Madame Picard to whom I have given the washing has taken about 5 weeks for the most - ridiculous looking little creatures - dressed in neat little cotton caps, & a square of coarse flannel pinned round them like a towel round a leg of lamb at a picnic - Mrs Cap enter & Mrs Murray distinctly pronounce against her as an offender for having them at all particularly so she had one last year that died - however the farmer has bought some flannel & entrusted it to me to cut out for them.

I have finished the sketch I took on the 7th but not begun one here as yet - there is one I we like to take up at the Bay some afternoon, when I have you to walk some distance with - we expect mamma down tomorrow when all our doings will be looked into.

Will it be convenient for you to send me some more money when I write for it? I mean have you any seen with you - I did not want it at once, but will write
