

except the closing of the day & eerie night I fear matrimony does not encourage self reliance & courage in a wife - I feel very helpless in many ways when you are away from me - Sophie has succeeded in bringing to light a daughter weighing 11 lbs 9/2 oz. Aaah little woman! she seems to be staying well however & is able to nurse the little one - Dara wants to find out about bread & its prices in Montreal I can tell her nothing about it & fear it will be difficult to find for so large a party as there is three grown people & three children. Paris 1887 I saw Mrs L. Skelton & must today take a tour of calling - I believe my self I various social obligations - when I will return to my brush will all the energy I possess - I also must try to finish at least one other book - my record of sent-up wrong ones just before I left-home, & whether the mistake was rectified I cannot say - but sorry as I am to add one care to your many - you will have to see about it at once, as the green plate will be hurried through - if you recall, Marguerite burned one through last fall with apparently no compunction & we paid some $10.00 to renew it - Another thing - Miss Mary Brush is here staying at the Margans!! Let's go up on Wednesday she was speaking with interest of the meeting. I wonder if she has an invite for Thursday - very likely not! Wd it not be kind to see!

We had a very nice sermon this morning from a Mr Starr - & a Communion service after the Methodist form, let's all invited to join - It is more akin to the Eng Ch-form - I really
