

Tuesday July 3
1883

Dear Dr. Humphreys,

Yours of 29th
arrived yesterday; but being Thursday my banks were closed, so I take your cheque to come with me
to cash it to day.

I shall send to Captain letter $60 and also $7 for Meredith's Price — $67 in all.

I deposit $ per credit two cheques are for $183.33 for salary and are for $20 for ocean fees $203.83 in all.

I rejoice very much over Charles' recovery and am glad you are making yourself comfortable.
I can assure you nothing darker has ever done
me so much good because that is to be with you. I fear however we are doomed
to lose this summer.
I have been to see that I can possibly see anything before I leave in the west, and Mrs

has also much to do
and will be occupied a good deal with William's affairs. However if the heat becomes oppressive she must run out of town somewhere for a time either in July or August.

I am afraid for
there was no feeling against you on the part of the Greenhields, quite the contrary.

The delay were for the quantity to correct the
I. and from here
occupation with Bell's marriage and not thinking there was any harm in the matter.

With love to all

Yours sincerely
