

S. Dwell,
Groswater R. S. D.
23 June 1885.

My dear Franington,

I am glad to hear
as usual for have not felt as one of them, or been otherwise done away with. - I was beginning to entertain serious doubts as to your safety!

I made it all right as you desired with Mr. Buss.

She leaves her husband Thursday; - whether to return or not in the Autumn, is uncertain.

Thanks for your kind words about your visit here & the Antislavery Exposition as regards its prospects. In relation to other episodes of your trip to Europe. - I am sure you will believe me when I say they are fully reciprocated by ch of us; and that we are looking pleasantly forward to those few days you are yet to spend here before you turn your face again westward.

Our little Annie had an attack of croup or Saturday night which, I am glad to say, readily yielded to prompt treatment, and we had no trouble for the doctor.
This is better, than it is yet do not stain again. - She sends her love to you, & tells me today her potatoes was doing very well indeed when she last saw it, & she quite thinks it worth the need to say!

Now regards Louisa; - I should very much like to have a day or two there with you, but this 'Erie bro' business makes it awkward. What I know, which I doubt you, what is likely to be done, & when papers are to be sent in, I must not stir from this office all my documents are.

Supposing you stay until Monday - I would try to come up on Friday if I found it practicable.

Let me know your movements definitely here - then you & I will then either write or wire you what I can do.

By the way, are they - comes to be here by the night, in the house you are in? - If so, I might as well come there, & see as much of

you as possible. -

Thanks for your promise of help in re. Edinboro:- We never know what may come of a word
spoken here & there in these matters. -

Did I ask you for Clara Murray's address? If not,

Kindly send it me. - He may be "acquainted" in Edinb' & willing to assist a poor boy.

All join me in kindest remembrances, & believe that I am,

Very faithfully Yours,
J. F. Armstrong.
