

Little Notes

1888

Dearest -

We have had a very long day, quite wet in the morning & chilly but towards noon it cleared up & we went out till dinner time - towards evening however the clouds re-asserted themselves & it has been pouring - fortunately not cold - Conrad & Ruth already look quite blooming & fat & baby begins to walk & talk - but he is a most lively little person & takes no end of looking after - I am trying to get Conrad in better order but he is very disobedient & full of mischief - he has behaved pretty well at table, so far he has been raising your tail boy - but I have locked the sulphurated man - but had to leave & quit the screw driver & two screws which I have given him at times & which have kept him wonderfully busy & happy during stress of weather -

Baby is a little better, at night I think though still he wakes too early for our comfort - I have got news of the boat - & Sam. M. h. is to go up for it - early tomorrow also will bring down mother's store wh. is at the station, please tell her so - The vegetables are up in the garden but the beds horses got in the night before we came I brambled pretty well over it - Old Muckle looks better than last year

We have the house redound with marsh mallows flowers also a few magnificent primers & daisies from Mrs. Lepey.
The milk seems unusually good this year - richer in colour Mrs. Lepey is keeping a cow for mother - I have been wondering very much with the warts on coloration, into the I find spots interesting from warning parents of me - & has some quantity prophetic notions on the subject of female coloration, I much has seen seen has to the skin & without I gently than I as I have imagined - I wish I had a type of the gentleman to remind me of this day & circumstances & special scenes

W. saw plenty of these patches between his skin & his hands & the children were also lighted to discover a real trace slight above the head I made them walk farther - & when is having a head & walking hence just up the the back between Japan's heels & the knees

It is too hard to have forgotten so many things but the confusion they have made it difficult to remember when I have to collect - do,

My dear - it is very comforting to be assured of your continued love & affection, 1st year of your life is a long time, & it seems very well that by no means at the end of all the beginning of it - & husband at the end of all the beginning of it - though you have always been most particular loving, sweet! I don't forget it; I advise you.
I have no special news to give you of myself, but just, perhaps, to let you know that

The matter at all for the present -

I hope for the winter life. I am getting through your paper for the present - you will receive the subsidies about you, with some news of your love team. I am very glad for you &
