

Little Notes

June 15th

1889

Dear Love - you must find the house very lovely now that the last bird has flown, & if you have had time enough to read up your coals - I wish Scott & I wish you off as soon as possible, & then you will get back in good time only do go down to the coast if you possibly can, & see all you can fit - is such a capital opportunity - I will like to hear more in detail about Eric, but I suppose it will keep till I see you - I am glad that Eric did well at his exams if he had not lost those weeks he might - have carried all before him with a little exertion. I am very sorry that McColl is doing badly - & what - a thousand pities that a tempter like McDonald sh^d be at - large instead of in a penitentiary - I had hoped that the farm was going on well, & that you wd have an easy mind about it -

Uncle had got quite a long bill against us - I sleep for garden & when we left & when we came down & 30 trees at - 20^{cts} a piece a good many are dead but he undertakes to replant those which have not taken - If half the trees grow we shall be in a forest In summer with 25^{cts} for straw it came to $0.25 - $3.00 for the tools with which he was much pleased -

The mosquitos were very troublesome last - night & the weather was warm

the I will give I had our first bath I it was hot as cold as night - rain been expected - I was quite surprised to hear that Mrs West - had achieved a son she is making up for lost time.

Was not kept: have assured seems to have not that order - His son is both killed, I child after child has died of consumption when proper to name I mendicants what.

you were - know baby when you come - I assure you he is not - giving of a one of your gentle? children children, he threw stones quite well, but is very handed - Consider it easy to go out in the heat - I. to pick - just - full of spirit & I confidence in his own powers -

And I must of I be about another name being given there - before has there a - with also some
