

Little Inetis
Thursday June 18th

1899

Dearest-Love,

As usual the fragment of time is all I have left-far from you. Another perfectly lousy day. 4 of your rose bushes are doing fairly well & the two others are not dead.
As to Eric's coat-I think those rubber coats very unwholesome & only fit to be used where actual protection from rain is needed. I sh<sup>d</sup> much prefer either a thin overcoat or fur coat. Kennedy had some nice ones reflected as the season was advanced one in particular I liked it - was $7.60 a brownish color & very good cloth.
If Carley had them they might be more stylish there -

I am very very glad to hear of the fight in College affairs I suppose that means the increment of Adams at a pair salary & relieving of some of his work - also perhaps a little less for you which wd be a mercy. I suppose no friendly arrangement - & procedure more salary for him, wh. might enable him to fulfil his long intention of having a little - I dare say the honour will also soften the heart of Sir D. F. & only they wd back the College Dr - matters might begin a little more favourably next session -

I thank Eric for his second letter, Edith was much amused by his letter to her & is planning a suitable reply -

Thursday

We have had heavy rain all night - fortunately little would, so the kitchen was the only place where soap occurred. There were plenty a loose string or some such thing.

Take care of yourself dear. & try come as soon as possible. No robots are almost ready to pull, & the other thing being such.

Watson is joining
your's ours