arrived last night, both very welcome - after dinner, the cold having moderated, <sup>we</sup> went to the shore with the small children, & I went off fishing, <sup>with Aunt & Dr.</sup> we met Mrs. Cash-well driving up & embarking with her drove up the road to Tucky's as far as the bridge, & then <sup>we</sup> followed the stream down to the mill, I had never been all the way down before & there are very pretty little falls on it; I was surprised at how well Bernard knew all the paths, & geographically of that swampy & watery flat back of Cremford's.
 He guided us without hesitation, through very tangly places, I pointed out each log where he had seen a fish, we came through the woods quite in the dark about 6 of 9 Corn-was the only timid one of the party.

Mother has been in great concern about the burglar stories, & came there yesterday when she was sure some of the hands several other people were handing dreadful tales about them, & finally Sam McTear was requested to sleep there, & keep guard.
I have advised her to have him or David sleep every night, as there is no use her lying awake, & listening to every sound.
I have got her to sit peaceably on the shore this morning for she was getting too excited over the fences & so on, & I thought the men wd go all the letter with her looking after.

I really think the cottage is a very good long air though I was very insulting to her's mother's mother in it.
I don't mention myself to paper there.
I was here I don't think it was so a good thing for you to meet us at lunch - I w'd much prefer to see you & a smaller I all that had to be done w'd be over I think it w'd be much better to have you fresh at home - I'd prefer to have the letter - I

The weather (today) is perfect another I even took a change in the sea with an ill wind, today's copy it was from a review to have a copy both rather than a copy to see another I really like it here, & if I had been replacing with them) each day, what tell - the time well spent = this property business has taken up a lot of time, & another is in progress about it - all through because she is taking my time, & has taken away my afternoon - I wish she could be of the power to see the services, & so to look careful - we have at - like - I wish she had been that - like - I wish to give, & it is far to all to work & show as being, which seems to me the measure I do not like to see Rachel & John is one of the dear people, give her my love if you see her again - also I wish there were D. & John's for occasionally - mainly I wish visited to go up next & brother if all remain as it is - I wish could visit to Wells tomorrow - as to details - has recent - up this A. M. - boy's baggage - so we are the last - years of summer
