Dearest -

I thought that yesterday wd be my last note to you - I am quite seized by the flu till Thursday - for I don't know what to do - you have not given me a hint - as to what you see or can't do when you get back - I think Dr. B. has objection to my going away, chiefly because he thought it unwise for me to go alone with W. & J. - we are now in another hot wave & I cannot well send Kate & Lou to be added to the Anti-Slavery party with no one but Kate to do for all has seen I well spare Lizzie here - as you are anyone else not-knowing how long I may need them. Pulmonis are not-to be got-unless ordered in advance, this I cannot-do either - & I may wait on & find I have to go alone at-the end of it. The ^{Woods} go Thursday night - & Kate & Con can go with them but-if we ed go Saturday of course I ed not-send them - So it leaves me in a muddle all round - if you do get this before you leave please try & think it-over, & be ready to make some refined decision, when you do come barring the fear of another conclusion for healy he is far better away from town & even with the fear, he is in the worst-conditions for general health. & provoking a development of whenever there may be latent.

I am very glad every thing has gone so well with you. I am sure it has been great for you & I hope it will fasten you on a better more intimate footing with him.
There may be a fair all things his smiling & arrangement for new acquisitions - I have not seen Hertha's latest yet - I ever remain devoted - this week yours -
