Dearest - to -

Carry died very quietly, last night, a little before 7^o - She looks very serene, & entirely peaceful, with her lovely locks of white hair - I am truly sorry that all the children cannot see her she was so distressed the the day they left that I did not like to send the small ones down to see her: Clara had been in several times - Her maids leave tonight & Kate Fraser will go down for a few days - Mrs. Hall is in & out - but will not sleep in the house or w^o not look at Carry

The landlard is to be sur-tendered & what he will or won't do - will decide the next steps - L. Lewis is making all arrangements about the funeral wh. is to be tomorrow at 2 of - Mother & I will go out to the cemetery Lewis & Robertson being chief mourners - I can not well leave Tuesday but - am very thankful you are with the children & unless Maare will take the hours - will simply send off the few lycopods getting a packer - to put them - & go down -

Mother & Ruth both strongly urge that I should stay & I dare say Clara will be able to manage better if alone & Ruth is getting some new ideas

Here
arranged - 9 pages with of course most than worth of paper
Anna

I happened to see about the things - & he is going to knows - I got not get him with money if he will have it on hand to see you - you see separate page
