

Carpenter's house -
after her death.

June 23rd 1908

Dearest - B. =

The mails from Mexico are peculiar. I got 4 letters from there yesterday none today. I had hoped to get an answer from you about - James & so on, but will do what seems best.
I thought I would send dining table, washing stand, bed & a few other things to make the only furniture I bought - was two tables & two chairs they were sent last week & can lie over till a load collects - Mr Moore still huns & huns, he says he has 5 empty barrels on his hands now - Lewis I think rather astonished him by his statement of Mrs P.'s affairs. Ligally there are no assets but the $100. in in bank & the furniture. everything else has been given away years ago. Mr Moore is to see me this morning & I will try & finish off the points of the things, if he will take 6 or 8 rems, I take it off our hands I think that w'd be fair = It is really too long to go into the whole thing but Mrs Nail marked like a tiger yesterday & we have settled & disposed of sent off no end of things.

Mr Lewis will attend to all the left over material which is very good of him = Drasser the plumber is to be up this morning - to get a small payment - & I will ask him about the stones & their value - Mother thought she might like the kitchen one - as her own is too large -

The weather is very pleasant, we dined with

Voltaire Longfellow last night - I am Miss with Miss Linn tonight - we were up to see Mrs. Weston last night - I sh
and - I never on - I hope to see her today sometimes - I am really glad you are not here - you have not - how much holiness yet - I am I have no knowledge as children - I might as well do this any thing else - I might as well do this I otherwise many? - I wish that I got I I hope we shall have a few more together - I feel very about the children as long as I see them - I can well have a mile with with them -

I ever so thoughtful in yr - got down all right - I hope yr - will get better, I do not like to take a letter more expensive series of matters -

Very
