

Trip to Paris.

Letter Notes

June 9th/99

Dearest-

We had quite a pleasant journey it was not very hot after mid night the only drawback was that Bernard ardently desired to make the most of his opportunity by sitting up all night & I thought this a little excessive & said he should get up as early as he liked so he went to bed shortly & I got up at about 1/2 of an interval appearing with remarks so that Poppie & Eva also woke & made a most exhaustive study of the whole train & ambed all that was

land in or being cooked for the dining room car the luggage man, the second class, some hitch about the engine - He ^{could} write notes - about it - The morning was fine &
pleasant, much rain
having fallen within a day or two - passed
roughly by our description
with Mr Tucky
driving & the address
of his vehicle - was found correct - Found
everything looking well & breakfast - coffee
under with built
stove & Lids that our
lunch basket quickly
wrapped the meal on -
B - has worked all

they like a strong air, once or twice he even inclines to fall away But again we are to have the wondering the plants before great but many of - what else perhaps he sees to do with a quantity of plants I buy for you I think it best to visit to that you have very little to see booked - before you go a thing of plants - I begin to think perhaps - but had better perhaps that - one of physics men see wright - persons concerned - the former y^{rs} - also not - given up by me - the remainder about the number - mention this & total have Paul has packed our bale - 7 yds of wool, 1 yard vertical - 1 yard - 9 several packing powder - tin - 2

between sugar - 1
other tin - all our
our boxes - 1
A course this - 1
Bottle - 1

Dapa seems more the
nurse - & Mother,
is very tired - It is
very quiet - of course
so I am all day &
get - rested.

I have only one reason why I think
this probably will not - reach till Monday as no mail
goes out till mid-
night -

I do hope Ruth & Con - won't really
suffer for the heat -

Much love

Anna
