Dear Sir

Your favor of Sep 4. enclosing check for $11.50, of which $10.00 is for dues & $1.50 for binding vol. is at hand. You mention "Vol XI" for binding, but I presume you mean the coming volume, which is XII, & will send you a bound copy of the latter when issued, unless otherwise advised by you -

I regret that an unbound copy of the Index was sent you by mistake and forward herewith a bound copy, together with a copy of the Kelley Memorial Volume. Please return the unbound copy to this office.

Enclosed I send you receipt for dues to July 1885.

Yours truly

A. W. Raymond
