

E. C. Howell
Washington
July 1893

Natural Science Establishment

Howell's

1301 13th St. N. W. Washington, D. C.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Natural Science Establishment,

EDWIN E. HOWELL,

612 17th St., N. W. (opposite State, War and Navy Building),

Washington, D. C., July 18, 1893

Prof. B. J. Harrington
McGill Univ.,
Montreal Canada

Dear Sir,

Are you willing to part with a portion of the Perulite specimens sent you by Mr. Jones Hishop from West Kootenai District B.C. I could give you in exchange pieces of the Fayette Co. Ark. Perulite and New Can and Ohio Perulite - two entirely different types, - could give you double the weight, or could give $1. per oz. for any portion of it with cost.

Very truly yours
Edwin E. Howell

