SOUTH BETHLEHEM, PA.

December 17, 1898

My dear Dr. Harrington:

Your
delightful official invitations, and your kind personal urgency, make it very difficult for Mrs. Brown and myself to take any rational view of duties and engagements at home.

How gladly would we join in your celebrations (were it possible) and offer our hearty congratulations on the good fortune which has come to McGill

University and to you, as head of the Chemical Department.

Since both are so worthy the Cause of education is nobly benefitted.

May your festivities be full of joy and great gladness

Believe me, sincerely yours,

J. M. Brown
