

Paris Aug 7. 1865

Dear George,

We arrived here
 safely on Saturday, and had a walk through the fine gardens of the Tuilleries the same evening. On Sunday we heard a French Sermon in the morning and an English one in the afternoon; but Paris I must say is a place where the Sabbath is not regarded. It is however

Remember to write to Myrta and say that I have written you from Paris.

a much more beautiful city than London. Today we have visited several churches and other buildings and
to-morrow hope to see the tower and the Garden des Plantes
and to leave for Geneva on Wednesday.

There are several
shops where stamps are sold. We bought a few South American

I wish to what we thought you had not. We paid only three sous <sup>per</sup> each.

Please remember
I take sufficient rest on your back and not to fatigue your self by long walks.
I shall be much disappointed if I do not find you
stronger on my return & I hope also you will be very kind and obliging

Send your shirts
in a parcel from London, addressed
to Mrs Pimrose

Give my love to Mrs Pimrose and her family.

Your affectionate
Father,

Remember to write to 'Mamma' and say that I have written you Paris.
