

Highfield, Bath Army
Sunday 70

My dear George

I got safely & comfortably as far as Liverpool & found Mr Crows awaiting me, but as it rained heavily the cabbing & crossing were not at all comfortable. However a cordial welcome & a luxurious tea dinner & I added to Mrs Crows & the children. Miss Kate Fraser of Pictou & Miss Carmichael of New Glasgow with a highly gaslit room soon made me at home & comfortable. The aforesaid ladies are at present visiting Mr. Row & intend returning to New-Haven in October, first going to London.

We had many persons to talk about. The youngest of Mrs. Crow's children is a real beauty - they seem all very charming fine children.

We had a most interesting dinner this morn. We thought of going to Liverpool to church tonight I fear it is too strong. It has a business this morn - from 3 to 5 a.m. I am quite excited & quite well.

Give my love to Susan, Ella, & Maria - The inhabitants of the great little colony
gone & affe
Mamma

10

Happy Birthday

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

