I have received your letter of the 12th of June & am glad to hear of your success in your search for water. I shall be his next letter that it will be better to take a boat which is ordered to take me to the ferry boat; which said ferry boat Mr. Row has bribed with half a crown to take me to the "Pastorians" direct from this side to that I shall

This on board I put in a slip when we were in the mill & mail it from there.

board in good time. I ought you know to have had the receipts which I suppose you kept because it is likely to be all rights. I hope I think as at the railway warehouse that Mr Crow has ascertained. I expect to be on board the Institution two hours before the other passengers which will give me ample time to arrange my things comfortably for the passage before my unknown companions of my state minors & before I may be unable through sickness to do anything. The weather is not very promising as it is raining & dull. I hope you got away comfortably from Brentford & I had no farther trouble about the suit.

Thank you for your second letter.
I trust you have received the key of your bag. I had not time to send the address ticket. I wish you to send to Mrs Cunningham a piece - say 6 - worth of gutta serena for the teeth. You need not write unless you like to. Only address it Mrs Cunningham. Victoria Park, Wandsworth, Liverpool. Be sure to thank Mr. Bell for all the additional trouble he & Mrs. have he saved all the noise & hubbub of the Liverpool wharves & going out to the Institution by the crowded "lands" at the last moment. Ough he I must be grateful & thankful that all my way has been smoothed before me. Mr. Crow showed me how easy has to write ought on arches by which my trunk got sent by baggage train & the help with the Chinese could be got from the railway warehouse & I has taken it over this morn. assuming me that they ~~are~~ will be sent on.
