

Dr Bigsby

My dear George

171

I have waited till today in hopes that my wife would be better - so as to enable us to see you to dinner on Monday but she continues most seriously ill - and in great danger -

This must prevent our having the pleasure of seeing you on Monday

Thinking it likely that some = thing about Sir. Roderick something interesting, will take place at the Geographical Meeting in the London University Hall near Saville Row, I have sent you the needful ticket - I wish I could send you two tickets

Principal Dawson has just sent me a clever lecture on Female Education I wonder where he has found time for it - I am my dear George

Sincerely yours

Nov 10/71
