

London

13th - July 1872

Dear Sir

I have waited until the last moment and the Engraver has not send the Medal.

Prof: Huxley has not, ^{the} slightest objection to your spending

the money in apparatus
instead of books.

H. R. H. has not ^{sent} yet the amount of his Scholarships, but one the Clerk has been here and he intimated that a cheque would be sent in the course of the ensuing week.

Believe me

Yours faithfully

Truman Reeks

Geo. M. Dawson Esq^r
