My dear Danson,

I am so sorry I have not replied to your last letter in this. I was rejoiced to see your handwriting and to hear about you. I am truly glad the Nova Scotians have got enough sense to know your worth and that you have been so well employed. During a short fortnight's real quiet holiday I took in Sussex in the autumn, I read carefully with much interest your Father's ~~interesting~~ attractive and valuable work on Acadia which you so kindly gave me.

But from what you say in your letter I think it wise to defer any geological excursion to Nova Scotia for a century or so, after your proposed subaerial denudation has taken effect.

You mention my book;
I hope long ere this you will have received a copy which I ordered Triebner to send when it first came out or very soon after, but I fear
