Dear George,

I send herewith
proof of the memoir for A.S. I shall have some copies printed to send to England to ^{Winn}, unless you telegraph that additional collections are needed. I shall also mail to you 82 memoir a number of copies.

I propose in the

Just instance to name them up to a few
day R. Jones, Etheridge, ~~Ray~~, Dawkins, W. Smyth Rae, Woodward, unless you telegraph the names and shall mention them to D. Pomeroy, & ask them to send
authorities to him,
that is if he will take charge of the matter. If not

Inver or Stenage would,
but Bruney would be more influential.

Shall ask Bruney how?
then to see Husley, &
ask him to take a lead, all the above
if you telegraph at?
pencil of the mode.

Shall have some money to your credit
from Warburton Bonds, 1st week of July. Where shall I deposit it?

I wish before you leave to have a decided idea of the probability of your being able to undertake any academic work.
I have a presentiment that I shall have to get out and give up wet paper,
and am very anxious to know if you remain
as able to take work
as ever.

With all love

Yours ever

Wm Ducloux
