

BUREAU OF AMERICAN ETHNOLOGY
WASHINGTON

Feb'y. 5, '95.

My dear Sir:

Allow me to congratulate you, and through you the Dominion of Canada, on your accession to the directorship of the Geological Survey. You have worthy exemplars before you, the support of one of the leading countries of our hemisphere, a rich fund of experience, and endowments of ability such as few men may claim; and I am confident your career will be noble and a source of honor to yourself and of benefit to your countrymen.

With great respect,
yours cordially,
WJMcLure

Dr. George M. Dawson, Ottawa.

My dear Sir:

It is a pleasure to correspond with you and through you to the Bureau of Ethnology. In your account of the excavations at the site of the ancient city, the report from the excavations, a rich haul of artifacts, and subsequent scientific work in the museum; and I am glad that you have been able to obtain so much of benefit to our country.

With great respect,

Yours truly,

W. H. Holmes
