Dear George,

My intended ~~you~~ gift of books arrived only last evening too late to have them unpacked and exprefed, so they must be sent to - ~~man~~ I enclose in this an inscription to be pasted into the earliest volume - the story of the earth, and I hope you will keep the volumes as a memento of me when I shall be gone.

And now dear George at the beginning of a new year I desire to give you my benediction, and to pray that God may bless you in this year in all your interests, personal, social and official, and may make it a year to be remembered for good.

Demand was reported easier last evening and I hope his malady has taken a turn but I cannot feel easy about him, more especially as his work begins again next week and he has lost all the benefit of the vacation.

I propose to ask Blackader about him, as these attacks are so alarming and weakening and so much depends on him. I hope however God will again deliver and restore him

Again wishing you all happiness and blessing in the New Year, I remain Yours even in love
Jm Dawson

Dear, your reference on the last page of your next week and be the but all the transfer of the
about the, on the
and to the objects in the, I hope however for will again return and
Dear

again writing for me and believing in
your ever in love
John Brown
