It just occurs to me
there probably a draft to the City way to send Manning to Ottawa, but it is just time I am on P. Catherine St.
Mr.

George

of the two letters wh I have heard from you since your last visit - chiefly about the M.S.D. business, are so wide & temperate. Considering the provocations there, they have comforted me much, your Cable also at the firm was free fr- all personal considerations & I trust will stay Rankin's impetuosity & try the with you & my letters, due by this time, consid-him how reasonable as well as necessary delay is. I have not said anything to Gb above this matter as it is most undesirable that she should think that we feel he is blameworthy, & may get a cold welcome, when she has left home & friends cheerfully, for his sake, & the hope that he may be successful in his profession here. She naturally believes that he has given a great deal of time & care to the M.S.D. & in a letter she received from Mr. Prichy, & recd to me, he mentions that he has spent two more weeks on it, going over it with great care. Gb is facing many difficulties that have arisen

Cornelia with her house, having it is working hard arranging the fittings & furniture, steadily keeping before her Rankin's interests rather than her own wishes.
 She is a most loving unselfish little wife.

Mr. Bennett, according to appointment, called last Monday & I told him where you thought he best to do about the monument. He said he intended to have it engrained & in place again by the end of last week. I suppose we shall have to go out. I see that it is satisfactory before paying his bill. Enclosed you will find a cheque for part, if not all, of a legitimate debt due to you, altho, I fear, my debt of gratitude will never be met I assure you it is heart deep & sincere, but the possible you must accept. It was your father's oft repeated injunction to "that all expenses connected with carrying out his wish to be remembered was to be a charge on his estate, & type writing & printing unquestionably comes under this order, so I shall be appured that you make any objections.

All are well. With loving kind regards wishes from Mother
