

The Manor House,
Chislehurst.

June 10, 1892

Dear George,

We are glad to receive your telegram of this morning. I intend to be at the Chislehurst station tomorrow at 5.33 pm to meet Sir Casimir and Lady Czowski who are coming to dine with us sans cérémonie. I hope you will be able to come by the same train, leaving Charing Cross at 4.55.

If you cannot remain until Monday we shall have to let you go on Sunday as you appear to desire.

Very faithfully yours

It has just occurred to me that the train leaves at 5 P.M. Saturday - the 455 being omitted.
