Dear Rankin,

I enclose a letter just received from your friend Wolgreen. We are all as usual - autumn letting down on us with its coloured leaves and night frosts. George we have not heard of for some time; but as winter has set in as the Rockies we expect to hear soon that he has come out to exploration.
When he comes we shall have all the men now except you; and I can Assure you we shall all be happy to welcome you when you come,

It would be a grand thing to have you all here at Christmas and New Year; but if you still cling to the P. O. I fear we shall not have that pleasure, and shall have to send our prayers and good wishes up to the great Throne whence radiate all good influences, summed up in the grace and kindness of God (Eph 2.7). I would acknowledge your letter to me & Anna from Shanghai - very welcome and interesting. I am afraid you miss your wife with all love Yours truly
John Dawson
