Dear Rankine,

As this is the last Canadian mail before Christmas, I take the opportunity to send you all the good wishes of the season.
May our Heavenly Father and our
dear Companionate
Saviour keep you
and bless you,
and may their

Favour shine on you that you may have peace. Mamma,
who is ever yours
well, is sending you a little parcel by this mail. I propose to send no special gift, except my father's blessing
and good wishes
and prayers for

Your welfare, and this in the highest and best sense,
for it is not what a man has but what he is that that is the really important matter,
I have been heavily
taxed this winter, but am looking forward to a little

Christmas.

Give my kind regards and Christmas greetings to any of my friends you
may meet, and especially to Mr Redpath & Dr Roe,
Ever yours
Wm. Dacom
