Dear Frankine

I have not written lately because the time passed so quickly, but we are again thinking of together & papa. He has been evidently failing for the last 10 days or two weeks. The last time he was out driving (about 10 days) mother felt quite nervous about him he was so feeble & then she was afraid to have him go down stairs & he began to sleep a great deal doing sitting or lying. Sunday & was up all day but very drowsy. Mary was down & stayed till Monday 11th in order to say good by. Papa was so heavy in the morning that we

Thought not very apt need valley but apt has not breathing easy? natural - Pump - today probably at 4 p - 9 1/2 before natural for has taken good medicine till today - now it is hard to secure him & to sleep not without readily as he has done

As the more he sees there is so little to do & what there is, is not well for him to try - I am accustomed to see children & only see glass to do all I can - When every one else thought - & stopping every day - & let the others know - when the part all of us business to close - had the idea that we was going to succeed upon & our attention through her mind - containing degrees to long to know her of not rouse him. Tuesday he was really comatose all day but - knew us & could stand us perfectly if he did receive well - less drawn & awake a good deal but only at intervals - & with a far away dreaming look.

We understood him with difficulty especially in long sentences - but he was still clear - last night he was restless & had a good deal of spasmodic ~~at~~ their form & legs - he always breathed that as threatening an attack & he seemed troubled - Today I have not heard him speak & while we washed & changed bath bed & body clothes he remained quite passive, & scarcely even requiring more than once or twice

This only complaint is of being "very tired" - He lies so serene & peaceful & unmovable that it is lonely to sit beside him - Today Dr B - thinks there must be some effusion on the brain wh - before he back of the one which we had obtained to be another's composition as to whether the poem is more to your taste than to his? Another has also a copy of the original letter to Miss Jenny that is always in view. It has been of her -

Love to G. & the dear maiden. Whether you will send to all include the letter for the A. S. must be probably receive this & have together
