Dr. Abbott And Her Canadian Associates

Dr. Maude E. Abbott, of McGill, is leaving this week on a year's leave of absence to take the chair of Pathology and Bacteriology at the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania. She takes with her as associates three distinguished Canadian scientists. The party is made up of: (1) Lola McLatchie, M.D. (Toronto), Licentiate Member General Medical Council of Great Britain, late Assistant Director of Pathological Laboratory, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, Associate Professor of Bacteriology, Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. (2) Dr. Maude E. Abbott, Curator of the Pathological Museum of McGill University. (3) Miss Iseult V. F. Finlay, late Bacteriological Technician and Research Assistant, Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. (4) Winifred A. Blampin, M.D., C.M. (McGill), winner McGill Students' Senior Medical Society Prize for original thesis in medical research, session 1921-22. Research Fellow in Pathology, Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.
