1920.

Association of Physicians

OF

Great Britain and Ireland.

(Founded 1907.)

RULES,

OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

LIST OF MEMBERS.

1920.

The Association of Physicians of Great Britain and Ireland.

RULES.

1.—The Association shall be called the Association of Physicians of Great Britain and Ireland.

Its objects shall be the advancement of Internal Medicine, and the promotion of friendship among Physicians.

2.—It shall consist of Ordinary and Honorary Members. It shall contain not more than 250 Ordinary Members, who shall be Physicians actively engaged in the Teaching of Medicine, or in Research. Men of distinction in medicine, who have contributed to its advancement, are eligible as Honorary Members.

3.—The business of the Association shall be conducted by an Executive Committee, consisting of a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and twelve Ordinary Members.

All these officers shall be elected at an Annual General Meeting.

4.—The President, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected annually, and shall be ex officio Members of the Committee.

The twelve Ordinary Members shall hold office for three years. Four shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election until after the lapse of three years.

Note.—Of those elected at the first General Meeting, four shall retire at the end of one year, and four at the end of two years.

Should other vacancies occur on the Committee, Members shall be elected at the next General Meeting to complete the term of office of the retiring Members.

No Candidate may be proposed for election to these offices unless his name, duly proposed and seconded, has been sent to the Secretary, at least three weeks before the Annual meeting.

5.—Each division of the Kingdom shall be adequately represented on the Committee.

6.—No more than four of the twelve Ordinary Members of Committee shall be resident in any one town.

7.—A Local Secretary shall be appointed not later than January 31st, by the Members of the Association resident in the town where the next Meeting is to be held.

8.—The Treasurer shall receive subscriptions, pay all bills, and present the accounts yearly to the Executive Committee and to the General Meeting.

9.—The Secretary shall summon all Meetings, and shall keep brief Minutes of what passes. He shall send, not less than one week before the General Meeting, to each Member of the Association a list of Candidates for the various offices, balloting papers, and agenda papers as may be requisite.

10.—The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the arrangements of the General Meeting, and for all other business of the Association, and shall meet at such times as may be convenient. Five shall form a quorum.

It shall be part of its duties to consider carefully the names of all candidates proposed for election to the Membership of the Association, and to nominate to the general body of Members for election such candidates as it may consider desirable.

11.—The Local Secretary shall be responsible for the local arrangements needful for the ensuing General Meeting.

12.—A General Meeting shall be held once a year, at Easter or Whitsuntide.

13.—The General Meetings shall be held in University towns, and in towns which are the seat of recognized Medical Schools in England, Scotland, and Ireland.

14.—General Meetings shall be held for the purpose of—

- (1) The election of Officers and Members of the Executive Committee.

- (2) The election of New Members.
- (3) The presentation of Accounts.
- (4) The selection of the next place of meeting.
- (5) Scientific business.

15.—New Members shall only be elected at the Annual General Meeting on the nomination of the Executive Committee.

Any Member of the Association may, by letter to the Secretary, not less than one month before the General Meeting, propose the name of a candidate, and shall at the same time send a list of the published writings of such candidate. The Secretary shall submit the proposal to the Executive Committee, who shall by ballot decide upon the nomination of the candidate.

The list of candidates so nominated shall be sent by the Secretary not less than one week before the General Meeting to each Member of the Association, who shall record his votes as directed, and shall return the paper to the Secretary before the General Meeting. Scrutineers shall be appointed by the General Meeting to count the votes, and the result shall be announced to the Meeting. One adverse vote in five shall exclude, and, to be elected, a candidate must obtain the support of one fourth of those voting.

The list of candidates proposed for election to the Executive Committee shall be similarly circulated for voting. The Election shall be conducted by ballot, and the result shall be announced to the General Meeting.

16.—Scientific communications shall be spoken, not read. No such communication shall last longer than 15 minutes except by the leave of the Meeting. Members shall be at liberty to publish their communications when and where they please.

17.—No reporters shall be present, and no report of the proceedings shall be sent to journals or newspapers.

18.—Visitors may by permission of the President be introduced by Members. Their names shall be entered in a book provided for the purpose. They may make communications, and take part in discussions, subject to the same rules as Members.

19.—The subscription of each Ordinary Member shall be Thirty Shillings a year, which shall entitle him to receive a copy of each issue of the “Quarterly Journal of Medicine”

Subscriptions shall be payable to the Treasurer on the First of January in each year.

A Member who is three months in arrears shall be warned by the Treasurer that unless his subscription is paid the “Quarterly Journal of Medicine” will not be sent to him. A Member who is more than twelve months in arrear, and has been duly notified thereof, shall, unless immediate payment be made, cease, ipso facto, to be a Member of the Association.

20.—A Member who is absent from four consecutive General Meetings shall cease, ipso facto, to be a Member of the Association.

21.—Notice of any proposal to amend or alter the existing rules, or to pass new rules, must be sent to the Secretary not later than one month before the next ensuing General Meeting, and must appear on the agenda of the said meeting in the form of a motion.
