Royal College of Physicians,
Pall Mall East, S.W.

March 4, 1914.

Dear Sir,

The President and Censors deeply regret to observe that your name appears in this advertisement, a copy of which I enclose, and in a similar advertisement in the "Daily Telegraph" of Thursday, the 29th ult. (enclosed).

They desire also to draw your attention to an article in the "Daily Mail" of the same date (enclosed).

They hope to receive an assurance from you that your name has been inserted without your knowledge or consent.

They further desire to draw your attention to a Resolution of

(Pertaining to personal advertising)

Riddle and R.C.P. 1914. 2.

of the College, dated February 2, 1888. I enclose a copy of this Resolution.

They hope that you will communicate at once with the Editor and Publishers of the "Family Encyclopaedia of Medicine", requiring that your name be withdrawn from the advertisements, and from succeeding numbers of the publication, if you have not already done so.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,

J.A. ORMEROD.

Registrar.
