To Dr. Elick from Dr. Lewis.

252 Madison Ave., New York.
March 26, 1904.

Dear Dr. Flick:

I have hoped until now that I could accept your very kind invitation for Monday at 12.30, but find I cannot possibly be there on time for it, although I hope to be at the committee meeting three hours later.

With extreme regret, as well as thanks for your courtesy, I remain

Faithfully yours,

Daniel Lewis.
