

Reveres little volume comes into being

Edward R. Oliveri Veniensis
De Pretiis Librorum Sibellus

1916

Reveres Sibellus

CUS417/21.38

Contains 1916 et al. book purchases. or notes:

Oct 16th The River Dove. with some quiet thoughts - on the happy practice of dogging 7/6
from Hallin (Piccolini 1847)

Just for the dog kept it for me as Dad has written at the end as he said for. When at home Dr. Morse read it. I am reading it now.
It is a superb book.

Nov 18th was last <sup>some 7</sup> <sup>the same date</sup> <sup>with this note on his first leave</sup>
all these books I bought with Conser Maran Emerson in Southampton on the pleasure of Oct 16th before sailing for Dunce. I am entering them up now, at home, may 10th or my first leave

Dec 6th
Nov) Deus a several occasions Charles Calla London 1869
120 Ed. Sotheby L3-12-6<sup>m</sup>

" Next the bid for this from Margret Farm on the Somme.

and the last entry a May 14th before his leave was up

The things in needful or serious. meditations upon the same last things. Dealt judgement Heaven here 4th Ed. Doble L2-2-0

Was ... other meditations

The story of this boy should be told somewhere by his own biography and leave with his books