

CUS 4-7/3.14

Copy ^{all}

Bodleian Library founded in 1602 by Sir Thomas Bodley was the 1st public library in Europe is the first owned by a public body, ie the Univ. gov fund source is open without payment to all & paper recommendations.

Largest University library in the world & largest one not directly aided by the state in size and importance it is ^{7th} 8th in the world, ^{about 4,700,000 books & prints & literary pieces} & among English speaking people it is 2nd only to the British Museum. It contains over 2 million these books include rolls & various literary pieces.