Diseases of the Larynx.

By HAROLD BARWELL, M.B. (Lond.), F.R.C.S. (Eng.)
Surgeon for Diseases of the Throat, St. George's Hospital; Laryngologist, Mount Vernon Hospital for Diseases of the Chest; Consulting Surgeon for Throat and Ear Diseases, Cripples' Home for Girls.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

A short practical account of the larynx, profusely illustrated and embodying the author's extensive experience in the early recognition and treatment of granulomata of the larynx.

Diseases of the Ear.

By HUNTER TOD, M.D., F.R.C.S. Aural Surgeon to the London Hospital, etc. Illustrated, 5/- net.

The writer deals with the subject, upon which he is so well qualified to speak, from an entirely practical standpoint. The book is carefully illustrated, and is intended to be a full and concise account of the subject for the needs of practitioners.

Diseases of the Nose and Throat.

By E. B. WAGGETT, M.D. (Cambridge.) Surgeon
for the Throat and Ear Department of the Charing Cross Hospital; Surgeon, London Throat Hospital, and Throat and Ear Department Great Northern Hospital and Central Hospital. Illustrated, 5/- net.

This book is intended to deal with the throat and ear on the same lines, and is a résumé of a series of clinical lectures designed to fully deal with all that is essential to students and practitioners in this subject.

Treatment of Disease in Children.

By G. A. SUTHERLAND, M.D., M.R.C.P. Physician, Paddington Green Children's Hospital, and North Western Hospital. Late President for Section on "Diseases of Children," British Medical Association.

in London given to the poor

The whole subject of disease in children, from the point of view of treatment, is clearly dealt with by the author.

Skin Affections in Children.

By H. G. ADAMSON, M.D., M.R.C.P. Physician for Diseases of the Skin, Paddington Green Children's Hospital, and the North Eastern Hospital for Children.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

The matter of diagnosis and treatment of the more common diseases of the skin in children, which more often than not lacks attention, will be found clearly described.

Heart Disease, including Thoracic Aneurism.

By F. J. POYNTON, M.D., F.R.C.P. Assistant Physician to University College Hospital, and late Sub-Dean to the Medical Faculty of University College; Physician to Out Patients, the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

A handbook dealing with the principles of physical examination, investigation, diagnosis, prognosis and treatment of the more important diseases of the heart, including thoracic aneurism. The aim of this book is to provide, within moderate compass, a guide to the study of heart disease, and clear indications for practical treatment.

Practical Anaesthetics.

By H. EDMUND G. BOYLE, M.R.C.S. Anaesthetist to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, etc.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

This work, like the others, aims at practical details only. The result of the author's great experience is given clearly with regard to the various methods of inducing anaesthesia, and the work is fully illustrated from original photographs of the more important positions, etc.

Diseases of the Male Generative Organs.

EDRED M. CORNER, M.C. (Cantab.), F.R.C.S. Assistant Surgeon, St. Thomas's Hospital; and Senior Assistant Surgeon, Great Ormond Street Hospital, etc.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

In this short monograph the author deals with the usual diseases of these parts (those of a venereal origin are not included). In the latter part of the book these complaints—both real and unreal—are strongly dealt with from an impartial standpoint.

Emergencies in Surgery.

By PERCY SARGENT, M.B. (Cantab.), F.R.C.S. (Eng.) Assistant Surgeon, St. Thomas's Hospital; National Hospital for Paralysis and Epilepsy, Queen's Square; and Senior Assistant Surgeon, Victoria Hospital for Children.

Illustrated, 5/- net.

The writer in this book deals carefully with the treatment of all those emergencies which may occur at any time in practice. Like the others, the author's name is a sufficient guarantee that the contents are, above all, practical, clear, and distinct.
