

COS417/39.41

Dear Nelligan,

I have just heard from Funk that he has estimated the cost for repairs and for the permanent upkeep at about £400. I think there should be no difficulty in raising this. I have written him as follows. Will you confer with him please about the names of the local men who should go on the Local Committee.

Dr. Nelligan,
British Legation,
Teheran.

1 May 1914.