Dear Chatard,

We were delighted to hear of Ferdānand IV. I think I have already written a congratulatory letter, but may have slipped it in the multitude of engagements at this busy season.

Before preparing the circular I have to wait for the official permission of the Persian Government and that may take a little time. I will than send you a group of circulars and ask the mēdical journals to reprint it, and if you would act as Secretary-Treasurer for the United States, it would be a great help.

Love to Mrs Chatard. We are all well. Revere is just going up for his Christchurch examination.
