From Lady Osler -
No. 41
(Letter to Dr. C.N.B. Camac)
(handwriting)

Toronto.

Sept. 28th 1903

1902

Dear Dr. Camac

I am ashamed that I should have allowed a week to pass without writing to thank you for the lovely roses - and to convey a message of thanks left by Miss Mallory. I have been doing up Dr. Osler's relatives ever since I arrived and am nearly used up.

The roses came with me to Toronto and were on Mrs. Osler's table two days for her enjoyment. I hope you are feeling the benefits of your holiday. It was a pleasure having you with us and I hope you will forgive the inconveniences of being turned out of sheets & towels so early. I sunned myself in my husband's glory in Montreal & as he departed at dawn Thursday not waiting to hear what was said of his address, I was inflated with pride and left very humble minded and impressed with my utter inability to cope with my position as spouse to such an admired object.

Cordially

Grace R. Osler
