Joannette una emisa = Enlay Mr Denis

Very fine paper.

September 24th

Mr. Gwyn

My dear Elizabeth

I dated this letter last night & had I gone on with it would have given you all a good ripping most unjustly, for I thought the Canadian mail had been delivered and there were no letters. However, in the morning on going to the hospital I received yours of the - I don't know why can't you date your letters? - and several of the 8th Sept. which amply made up for the brevity of yours. The man at the letter box always has such a blurring smile on his face when he hands me my letters on a Wednesday morning, the Jorney must think is rapidly being repaired, after the fire. On Sunday I took a trip out to Putney to dine at Atwell Francis. I got there early & went to St Johns Church moderately high and very well filled.

The Francis don't trouble Church much.
I do not think it runs in the family.
Mrs Francis is very pleasant and they have a brace of fine boys. I went with Atwell in the afternoon to River and pulled down the river in the evening over the course of the International boat race. Next Sunday I shall probably go to the Board & take with me your wedding cake as an introduction to the sisters. I shall go & see the brothers tomorrow to prepare them. I got the Banner of this week but no mail. I shall look in the next for that Avenue affair if I could get up another attack of measles (with delirium) I might they come from my girl, whoever she may be. I am sure that any one reading your & Lemmettes letters of this way might suppose that they came from Utah & I <sup>was</sup> a young Mormon in embryo, so feelingly do each of you allude to two separate girls, as mine. There being luck in odd numbers, I shall endeavour to get a third over here. The doc-ter's girl has not arrived in London yet, I would give a good deal to be behind the scenes when he asks for her.

I can imagine the old boy's surprise I reckon he will be gone by the time I have to do it, anyway he will have got accustomed to the business.

We have had it untypically cold for the last week & several typical London days have been interspersed.
I went to the Harpers one day last week and after dinner accompanied them to Mr West's church, which became prophetic. Do you remember the circumstance? How is Carrie?

I must take a trot out to Banner with some & see her father again He does not look a bit changed and is apparently very happy in his situation. Poor Amy will not like to move to New-Brunswick. It is such a long & of the way place at present. I am afraid Lemuel & Mary have made some of the Lloyd's Wadsworth's money, with the savings at the Festival. They had a grand commemorative service at all Saints Church as the Anniversary of the S. P. C. K. I am afraid those initials are incorrect. In the Christian Unity Society. I did not go, but regretted it after reading the description The <sup>I suppose</sup> ~~Wadsworth's~~ are just now in the agony of moving as I saw in the Banner that the sale was to take

Dear Mother
I have not written you for some time
I am well
I hope you are the same
I
love
you
all
am
yours affectionately
John
D. Williams
