My dear Chatty

First & foremost you may mention casually that though I am "too proud to be too honest to steal" yet I shall be induced to one or other remedy before long unless a check arrives soon.
Laumas was nothing comp and to day I have been for nearly three weeks drat the dimes. I wish we could get along without them. I got your letter to day, after being five weeks from home & thought it fine. Manaus boy was baptized on Sunday afternoon & was honored by my standing God-father. I am so glad poor Frank has got home safe & sound, give him my love I tell Molly to take her boy if he is a good one.

the last exception principally to "prayers for the dead", I have a regular "Confession of Faith" on his hand & was splendidly given. I will send you a copy of the "Rule &c" when I get some time.
I can't, but don't you circulate it (on the sub account) as it is strongly meant not for ~~for~~ Protestant bodies to chew. I am glad Dr. Lath's progress, tell him my letter is coming & hint that his was most probably been detained at the ~~Dealers~~ P. Office as I was not reached here yet. Ask him to bring it up. How class were bad set along in England. Tell him not to forget to thank me when he is on his way back & let him know it is my number 1st

Our Dutch is progressing but not as rapidly as I would wish. I have no suitable time to spare for it. Inspire this school you did the 1st class the 2^d for me, I owe to Manning, and shall

Yours truly,
John Bent,

& not likely to take to drink & abuse her. If he does I will be down on him. Poor Hals wood, he did not break his neck, he may yet I am up to my eyes in work, but keeps healthy as we have had no very hot weather it has been quite endurable. Such a nice fellow is boarder been now called Henderson I knew his Sister when I was at Berston He is a St John's & a high "m" & good "m" too There has been a jolly flur up at St Johns Deacon Prime circulated two copies of an extreme sheet called the "Rule of Life". Mr Wood & Mr Norman were accused of it at the Synod & both claimed to answer them but now ld answer their Bishops. Luckily they new nothing about it, but poor Prime has had his license taken away. On Sunday last Mr Wood, preached a ^{long} sermon on it & acknowledged that though he could not hold it all himself he would not quarrel with any of the his Parshoners if they did

P.M. 1025 - 236 It's time to start I left here & crossed over river to town at Woodstock by passenger train and then took car at Woodstock station. There was no one to open and close and to acknowledge you are here and are not willing to give a hand. In another time would have been better known and explained so that the road and track is well known.
"Good" is my sign. "I want it" is a sign and "I do" is a sign of giving a man and well as of saying and making no more trouble "I just don't" tell father he's coming to the General store tomorrow & Good return to town in the evening and said the chores at home & tell father when he comes I am not home & I know it pleased him that I had no get permission and after you show
