

~~1022/79/3~~ CV54/17/79:3

Canadian Practitioner April 1883

vol VIII p 128

Personal Calⁿ

Dr Buller of McGill, Montreal, suffered for some time from subacute rheumatism.
We are glad to learn that he has recovered and has resumed practice.

Report says that active work, including the loss of weight after his noisy tenant, is more congenial to his taste.