

~~1028/80/2~~101
p. 12Tea-ing at the Gross's - wrong.

Mrs. Chapin says it was entirely a Southern household. Large mid-day dinner; usually a walk in the afternoon after S. W. Gross's office hours. Then supper.

Sunday a great family gathering always at Gross Sr.'s - nothing like the Baltimore life.

Entertaining largely gastronomic. Few house guests - whole thing very gross.)