

(Handwritten)

1022/2/38

(To Dr. H.V. Ogden)

The Aldine Hotel

Philadelphia, 18/10/1884.

C05417/80.38

Dear Ogden:

Am getting settled in my new home. Began work on Tuesday. Have a good class - & the work is not hard, only four days a week. I have about 40 beds and see the out patients at 12 a.m. with two assistants. Shall get settled in rooms next week when I shall send you correct address.

Mrs. F. sent on your last letter. Glad to hear that you are thriving.

Yours sincerely,
Wm. Osler.

The spent his first five years in his own family home a place with the Philadelphia location for it here was the home of Dr. James Rush the son of the famous Benjamin. Was in the heart of the city a Charleston street it was then a suburban home of fashion and elegance where society in the 1830's was wont to be entertained. The house was built in the original old house was bought by J.B. Jefferson with the intention to be transformed into a hotel to care for guests of the Continental Exposition 1876 and as an expression of its owners love

Promptly elected a member of the "Medical Club or Club of 19" really a club of 12 founded in 1867

it was named for the first president Aldine

- H. Wood - resigned
- James Lyon
- H. B. Ware d. 78
- J. B. Murray d. 79
- George Pepper d. 72
- Wm. Pepper d. 98
- Edw. Rhoads d. 71
- Dr. M. Cheston
- Horace W. Clemons, resigned
- Samuel Allen
- Richard A. Cleeman
- Sam. W. Gross

original members

is bears or a supper served at 9:30 instead of a dinner. After 1905 a dinner

Great friends gave these men at Aldine Hotel Mar 10 1917

additions

- Herbert Morris - resigned
- Wm. F. " d. 91
- Wm. Goodale d. 94
- Chas. J. Hunter d. 84
- Wm. J. Jones d. 81
- Charles Sincles d. 10
- Louis Stern to 1885
- Wm. Osler
- Geo. C. Harlan d. 09
- ~~J. P. Murray~~

Some deceased members taken in by Geo. W. Morris
Apr 1910